

ALTERNATE ACTIVITIES AT THE CENTER

FREE EXPERIENCES

Artists at Play

An imaginative, artists-created playground offering active, free fun for all ages. The park is in Next 50 Plaza, located between EMP Museum and Seattle Center Armory, just north of the Monorail station.

Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation Visitor Center

The Visitor Center takes visitors of all ages on an interactive journey that brings to life the connections we share with others across the globe.

Seattle Center Walking Art Tour

You and your group can enjoy the gardens, art pieces, water features and green space that mark your path through Seattle Center.

The self-guided tour includes more than 25 points of interest. You will discover some of the unique features and fascinating facts that make Seattle Center a civic treasure. Tour brochures are available at the Seattle Center Armory Information Center

TICKETED ACTIVITIES

EMP Museum

EMP is a leading-edge nonprofit museum, dedicated to the ideas and risk-taking that fuel contemporary popular culture. At EMP, artists, audiences and ideas converge, bringing understanding, interpretation, and scholarship to the popular culture of our time.

Pacific Northwest Ballet

Discover dance in a professional setting. Students participate in a fun and challenging ballet class taught in our state-of-the-art studios. They also observe the dancers at work in class or rehearsal for upcoming performances, and have the opportunity to view brilliant costumes up close. $100 coordination fee per fieldtrip.

Pacific Science Center

Pacific Science Center inspires a lifelong interest in science, math and technology by engaging diverse communities through interactive and innovative exhibits and programs. Each year, their education programs reach more than 1.1 million people around the state – in their communities, classrooms and on our campus.

Space Needle Observation Deck

Seattle's most iconic landmark has been rebooted with new award-winning interactive technology. Today, the Space Needle is inspiring guests with new experiences that deliver more interaction, insights, connections, smiles and "wow". When booking be sure to inquire about the Space Cadet Challenge!
